

Selling Popcorn Skit (Part 2)

Scout (to audience): I'm wearing my scout uniform. My mom/dad is right over there in the car, and she can see me. I'm going to walk around the grass to the driveway and front walk.

Scout approaches the adult and pretends to knock on door/ring doorbell.

Adult: May I help you?

Scout: Hi, I'm <name> and I'm a scout from Pack 685. We're selling popcorn to raise money to do fun things like go camping.

Adult: Maybe. Do you want to come inside?

Scout: No, thank you. We aren't allowed to go inside anyone's home. It's the pack's rules.

Adult: OK. What kinds of popcorn do you have?

Scout: We have a lot of different kinds, such as butter, caramel, and chocolate. I'm sure there's something you'll like. (hands order form to adult)

Adult: Do you have a pen?

Scout: I do. (hands pen to adult)

Adult: (pretending to write an order) Do you have change if I pay in cash?

Scout: I have some, and my mom may be able to help if I don't have enough.

Adult: (hands form back to scout) When will I receive the popcorn?

Scout: I may have what you want today. If we have to order it, it may take 4-5 weeks.

Adult: OK.

Scout: Thank you for supporting your local scouts! (walks away)
